

UNIVAR = OPPORTUNITY

Product Safety Officer

Temporary position 18 months

We currently have an exciting opportunity for a Product Safety officer to join our EHS-Q team in the Nordics.

Today we are a cohesive team of 8 individuals working in three segments, Product Safety, Quality and Safety at sites. As these three segments overlap considerably, cooperation is an important criterion for success.

Univar's EHS-Q profile is well known and appreciated among our customers. The position as Product Safety Officer includes assessing and classifying chemical products, creating Safety Data Sheets, notifying to Swedish and Norwegian authorities and of course you will work with the new European CLP legislation and REACH.

Contact with customers, suppliers and authorities will be important part of your work day.

Who are we looking for?

We are looking for you with a university degree in chemistry, environment, occupational health or toxicology and at least five years of experience. A DGSA certificate is a benefit.

The successful candidate will have good communication skills, likes to work in a team and can write and speak English as well as local language.

If you are interested in applying for this position, please first discuss it with your line manager and then send your CV and covering letter to Henrik Lindmark, henrik.lindmark@univareurope.com, +46706-556323, not later than 7 November.

Univar Nordic is a leading specialist within distribution of chemicals, additives, ingredients and lubricants. A position reached by a strong corporate culture focusing on quality, environment, safety and being a leader in finding innovative solutions for our customers.
